

Join ISAZ!

The International Society for Anthrozoology (ISAZ) was formed in 1991 as a supportive organization for the scientific and scholarly study of human–animal interactions. ISAZ is a nonpolitical nonprofit with a worldwide, multi-disciplinary membership of scientists, scholars, students, interested organizations, and laypersons.

Who can join ISAZ?

To ensure that anyone with an interest in the field can enjoy access to the most up-to-date information and scholarship from the field, the Society offers a range of membership options: Individual, Society or Student Affiliate, and Corporate.

Why join ISAZ?

By its very nature, the study of human–animal interactions and relationships transcends the traditional boundaries between established academic disciplines. Through its various meetings and publications, ISAZ provides opportunities for members to develop their ideas, concepts, and research methods in a spirit of open, interdisciplinary exchange and international collaboration.

By joining ISAZ, members enjoy:

- ❖ The Society's bi-monthly journal, Anthrozoös, the leading academic journal on human–animal interactions and relationships
- ❖ On-line access to back issues of Anthrozoös
- ❖ Quarterly e-newsletter
- ❖ Substantially reduced registration fees for all ISAZ annual conferences, which, to accommodate its international membership, are held across the globe
- ❖ Access to the Society's electronic announcement list, which distributes information about relevant employment and grant opportunities, conferences, calls for papers, and book announcements
- ❖ Access to the Society's annual membership directory
- ❖ A 30% discount on books from Routledge: Taylor & Francis
- ❖ Special benefits for Student members (see website)
