

COME TO STOCKHOLM IN JUNE

ISAZ 2010: Cross-cultural Perspectives on Human-Animal Interactions

The 19th Annual Conference of the International Society for Anthrozoology (ISAZ) will be held in conjunction with the 12th Congress of the International Association of Human-Animal Interaction Organizations (IAHAIO) in Stockholm, Sweden on June 30th, 2010. The theme of the conference is "Cross-cultural Perspectives on Human-Animal Interactions." Highly competitive rates for joint ISAZ/IAHAIO conference registration are available.

Keynote speakers will include:

Brinda Jegatheesan on "The Importance of Culture in Human-Animal Interactions."

Göran Ericsson on "Cultural Resistance to Wildlife Restoration."

The conference will be held at the Stockholm Conference Center (Folkets Hus) in the city center, close to a range of excellent hotels, and easily accessible by Arlanda Express train service from Stockholm's International Airport. For further information on conference registration and hotel reservations please visit the IAHAIO 2010 website at:

<http://www.iahaio2010.com/>

